Description

Private Placements

Near Earth assists companies in raising capital in the private equity and debt markets, where we have worked on a wide range of projects. In addition to our industry knowledge and structuring expertise, we have extensive access to strategic and financial investors interested in Satellite, Commercial Space, and Telecom Technologies.

We maintain regular contact with numerous private equity and venture capital firms that are active in our sectors of expertise. Our clients benefit from investor relationships forged over the course of years of active involvement in the private placements market.
